EXPERIENCE & INTEGRITY

New York Plumbing Wholesale and Supply founder and owner Derek K. Price is a seasoned professional with progressive experience in plumbing, heating, waterworks and sprinklers. As a 3rd generation business owner, currently operating out of the same community that his father and grandfather once established businesses in, Derek recognizes the importance of giving back to the community and fostering strong and impactful customer relationships.

As a key business philosophy, Derek strives to offer a personalized and attentive customer experience, valuing integrity and mutually beneficial professional relationships over short term and impersonal sales. This philosophy, embraced by all New York Plumbing Supply team members, shapes the way the corporation conducts business.

CAPABILITY STATEMENT

New York Plumbing Wholesale & Supply, also known as New York Plumbing Supply, is a New York State MBE certified residential and commercial plumbing distributor, selling plumbing fittings, fixtures, pipe, tools and accessories. The corporation sells to government agencies, sole proprietor plumbers, plumbing service companies, management companies as well as residential and commercial property owners.

The New York Plumbing Supply mission, provide customers with the right material, at the right price, to get the job done right, is supported by a management team and staff with over a 100 years of combined industry experience. This experience and “on the job” training, gives the New York Plumbing Supply team the resources needed to obtain virtually any plumbing or plumbing related product.

DIFFERENTIATION

New York Plumbing Supply prides themselves on accommodating customers of all calibers, from small business plumbers to government contractors. While nationally known large supply houses target distributors and mega plumbing service chains, New York Plumbing Supply offers a more personalized and attentive experience, valuing integrity and long lasting customer relationships over quick and impersonal sales.
